Captured

/kæpt/

1. to take by force or stratagem; take prisoner; seize:

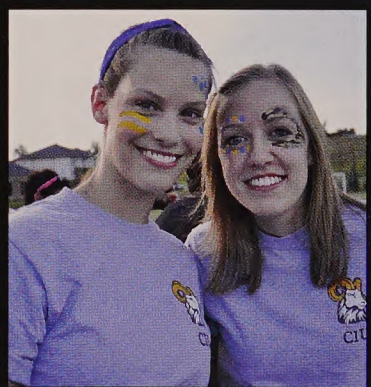

"The police captured the burglar".

2. to represent or record in lasting form:

"The CIU Finial's purpose is to capture the year through pictures so that students could look through the memories they've made".

3. to take possession of, as in a game or contest:

"to capture a pawn in chess".

Letter from our President

Dear Class of 2015,

May 16, 2015 marks a milestone in your life. You are graduating! I know you look forward to the next step with anticipation and excitement. It is our prayer that your time here at CIU has been rewarding, filled with wonderful memories, and your love for God has been strengthened. We join your family, friends and classmates as they rejoice with you.

When you exit the doors of Shortess Chapel, you will join over 17,000 alumni who currently serve in over 150 countries. Whether you are a ministering professional or professional minister, you will join a unique group of individuals who are serving to impact the nations with the message of Christ. Our desire for you as you embark on your next adventure is that you will emulate our year verse, "David. . . a man after (God's) own heart. . . who fulfilled the purpose of God in his generation" (Acts 13:22, 36).

Go out, seek God's heart, and fulfill the purpose He has planned for your life! We have prayed for you as students and we will continue to pray for you as alumni.

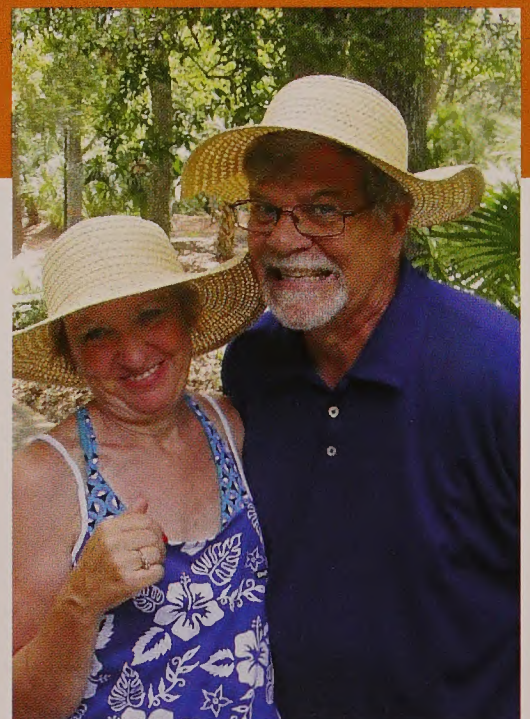

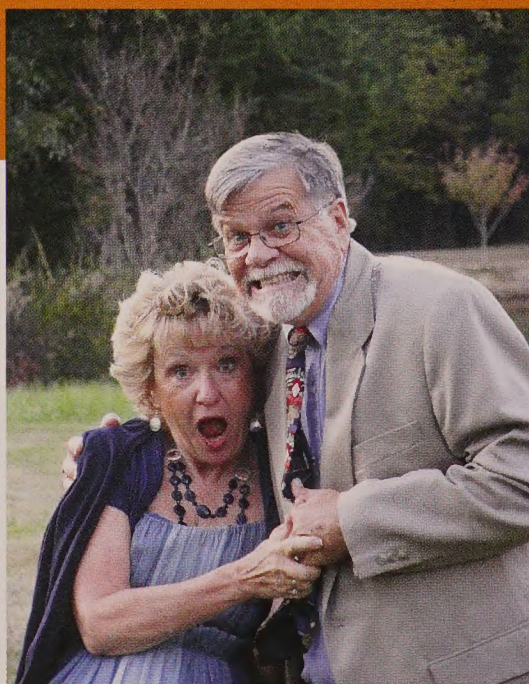

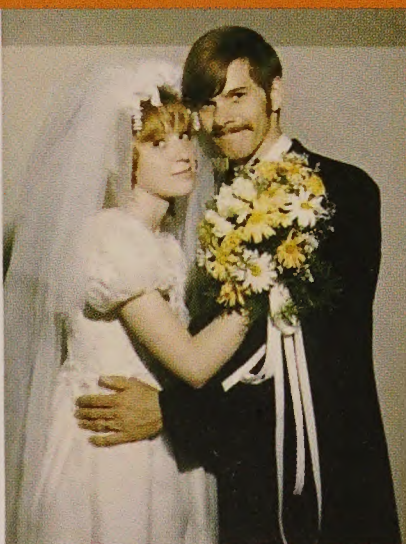

Bill Jones
President
Columbia International University

Dr. Larry Dixon

“Theology is not boring; theologians are.” Dr. Larry Dixon coined this as his life’s motto and life’s challenge to make theology come alive for his students. Whether it be in a seminary classroom, in one of his books, at Kirkland Correctional Facility, or even in tennis, Dr. Dixon passionately teaches that the God of the Bible is approachable and involved in all of our existence and Dr. Dixon delivers it with his own unique sense of humor.

Dr. Larry Dixon was born in Burlington, North Carolina and became a Christian as a teen. From the moment he was saved, serving his Lord burned in his soul and he began preaching almost immediately. This fire has never burned out. His entire life has been spent serving his Lord preaching, teaching and writing.

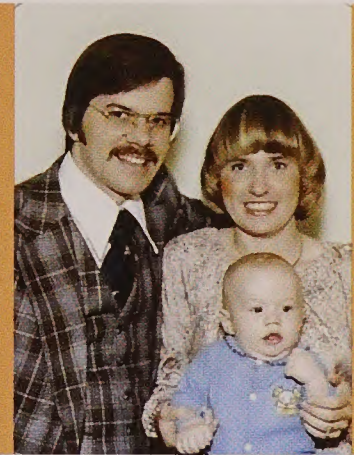

His wife, Linda, his two grown children, Brian and Amy, and his daughter in law, Julie Murray Dixon are all CIU graduates. The greatest joys of Dr. Dixon’s life are his family especially his four grandchildren and tennis both table tennis and court tennis. He coached the Ben Lippen Boy’s tennis team for six years. When asked when he will retire, Dr. Dixon replied, “Dr. Terry Hubert is my role model. I want to teach until my very last breath.”

Family

Ministry

Education

Dr. Dixon is fond of saying, "Theologians might be boring, but Theology shouldn't be". Dr. Dixon has spent seventeen years at CIU demonstrating the truth of the second half of that statement. Anyone who knows him, though, will also tell you he is far from boring. His students enjoy him; his colleagues appreciate him; his table tennis opponents fear him (in Christian love, of course). He is active in his local church and is sought out by other congregations for pulpit supply. He is an author, a conference speaker, and a regular participant in scholarly society meetings. His concern for the lost is equaled only by his love for his family and his passion for his Lord. Dr. Dixon is a great model of what a follower of Jesus Christ should be. - Dr. John Harvey

Winter Formal

Winter Formal was a night filled with fun and bliss!

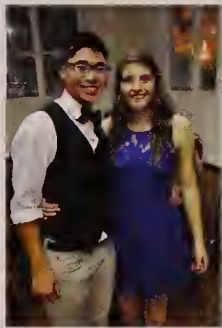

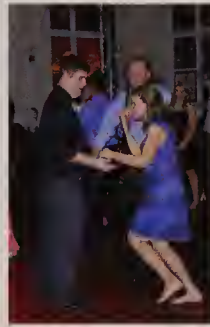

We graced the dance floor with our rusty Bible college dance moves, and ate delicious food while talking and laughing together. The setting was beautifully decorated and gave the feeling of dancing beneath the stars, yet in temperatures that were much more comfortable. Friends were everywhere; music was enjoyable; the roaring 20's came back to life and we showed our inner-class which would have only been appropriate of the times. Ladies wore flapper dresses, and men wore bow ties. Everyone embraced the chance to have a good time. Winter Formal made a great memory, one that we can reminisce of in years to come!

THE 1920's

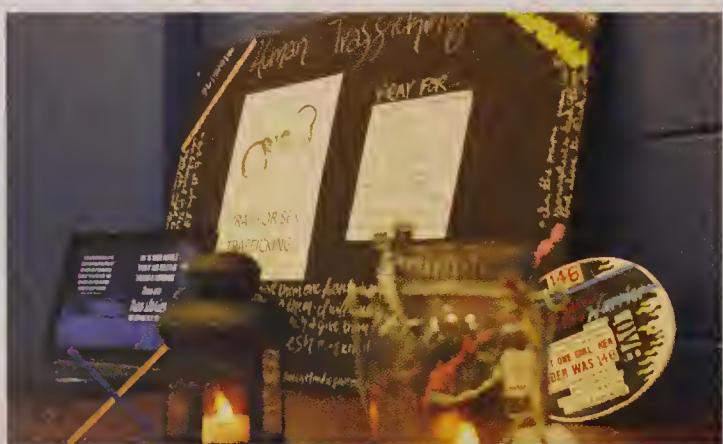

DANCING THE NIGHT AWAY...

Just because we are Bible college students doesn't mean we can't bust a move.

World Christian Week

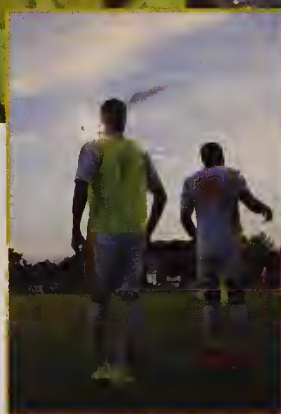

Our student body looks forward to celebrating World Christian Week each Spring. During this week, we focus on the heart of God for the cultural diversity within our community and around the world. This year, missionaries from all over the world shared about their experiences on the mission field and several of our own students shared pieces of their homelands. Business partners of CIU also shared their testimonies of God's hand in the marketplace. We all grew through a time of prayer for the nations as well as discussion over topics of struggle and strength for Christians in today's world. While these disciplines and values are emphasized in our community daily, this is the week when we are able to more focusedly renew a love for God's mission. In chapel, we enjoy songs sung in different tongues, and speakers brought different perspectives on evangelism and Christianity to our table. We were encouraged to gather and specifically pray for these contemporary issues such as sex trafficking and homelessness. Our horizon was broadened by new knowledge of cultural foods and norms, all fostered in ways that are fun and experiential. Missionaries and mission agency representatives met with students in the student center to discuss areas in urgent need of prayer and encouraged personal involvement. Although it only lasts for a week, students who involved in the richness of the World Christian Week will keep these experiences as gems.

Rams go 11-5-2 this season

Flash Back

#23

"The game against Bluefield College. We were losing 2-0 at halftime and it seemed we were going to lose but when we got back on the field we just destroyed them and scored 3 goals, one was my assist."

Maksym Yakovenko,
Freshman

#22

"The high of my season was scoring the game winning goal against Bob Jones"

Paul Grandacarpio,

#4

"This season was full of fun times and awesome games where we were able to show that we are a really great team not only by the results but also the way we played by showing Christ."

Abe Vazquez,
Sophomore

Flash Forward

Coach Whitaker reflects on this year's season and hopes for next year

The boys soccer team this year had an overall successful season, but Coach Whitaker stated that even though everyone had a desire to win, they didn't set any performance based goals this year. Instead, they focused on their team's philosophy and allowed those values to lead them to victory. Those values include, putting others before themselves, to compete with passion and purpose, committing to excellence, and enjoying the journey. Since most of the team will be returning next season Whitaker has high hopes for next season to be able to continue building the team and developing these values and continue pushing towards victory.

#21

"My favorite memory this year was going to Bob Jones and beating them 4-1 and going away and coming back and realizing how awesome the Rams Army is!

Damion Patterson,

#20

"The highlight of the season for me was the game against Bluefield. We went down early but rallied together as a team, playing for one another and pulled out the win. It was a great team effort, and we earned that win."

Daniel Mallard, Junior

#18

"The highlight of the season would be my senior night when we beat BJU in overtime. It was the first time my family watched me play all together and it was also a time to tell my brothers and coached I loved them and enjoyed the journey I spent with them."

Chales Jones, Senior

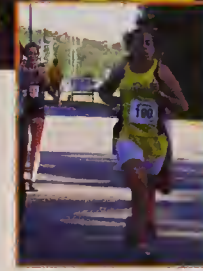

Flash Forward

Coach Brooker reflects on the past season as well as his hopes for next year

Despite a tough season working through numerous injuries, Coach Brooker was still proud of the team's performance at Nationals in New York. Next year he hopes to recruit 12-15 men and 12-15 women in order to be even more competitive, possibly even placing in the top ten next year. Brooker is excited to be adding track and field to CIU's sports program in the spring of 2015 and using that as a way of building the speed and endurance of the cross country runners going into their own season in the fall.

Alanina Battermann, Freshman

"One of my highlights of the season was the experience of going to NCCAA nationals in New York. God was so faithful to us throughout the whole trip and I got to experience so many memorable things."

"My highlight of cross country season would be the fellowship with the team. Its so awesome to see everyone care about each other."

Max Erb, Freshman

"One huge highlight for me was when Drew and I got first and second place, respectively, at Toccoa Falls. It was a huge blessing from the Lord."

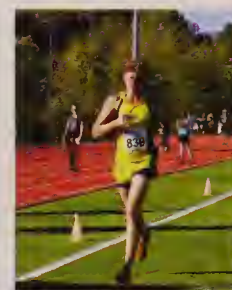

Scott Swier, Sophomore

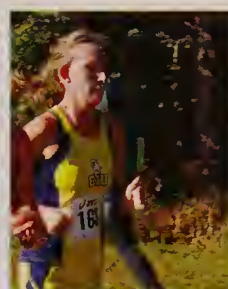

Kayla Collins, Junior

"My highlight was at Nationals when I crossed the finish line I looked up and saw Coach's face. I could see how proud of us he was and it made me so thankful for everything he did."

"The best part about cross country is becoming a family with the new people who join the team and Nationals this year was a great place to do that."

Blake Tindle, Junior

Alexis Zwilling, Junior

"Our race at USC Beaufort was my highlight because after barely making it to the race in time to warm up, every girl on the team ran a personal record!"

"My highlight was watching how some of my teammates made extreme improvements and stepped up into leadership positions when the team was going through injuries and stress."

The Married Students Association exists to be a voice of married students to the Student Senate. We exist also to bridge a connection between the students of CIU who are married, live off campus, and who have children. Our activities are meant to foster community and fellowship on common ground.

Some of our events have included roasting marshmallows at the Pointe, celebrating Christmas, and meeting new students at cookouts.

It is our mission to make sure that the voice of students who are not regularly present on campus, in the dorms, or who are in undergraduate classes are still accounted for in making decisions that effect the entirety of the student body.

Rambler

The Rambler staff has continued to publish everything from current world news, to horousr solutions to current CIU student problems, to engaging short stories. The witty flow charts and challenging articles are thoroughly applicable to the student body and are well received as students pick up their new editions and can peruse the pages throughout their lunch in the cafeteria. The Rambler allows for students to see other students address current trends in CIU culture, both spiritual and comical, giving the student body both a reflective outlet and conversation starter.

This year our yearbook team focused on capturing the important moments of this school year. Soon, we realized that it wasn't only important to capture the big events such as formal or world Christian week but it was also important to capture the little everyday things such as students walking to class, playing Frisbee in front of the library and hanging out in the student center. We wanted to truly CAPTURE this school year so that ten or twenty years from now we can remember the memories we made. I've been on the yearbook team for four years now but this year more than ever I realized how important it is to reflect on the things we've learned in the past. I know that most of you will look through this book once or twice after you receive it and you'll put it away but my hope is that maybe five or ten years from now you will remember to look at it and reflect on the things you've learned and the people you met here at CIU. - Tina Randimbiarison, Editor

In loving memory of our friends, classmates,
brother and sister in Christ.

“Death is swallowed up in victory.”

“O death, where is your victory?

O death, where is your sting?”

The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

What in the World?

Two-thousand fourteen brought many extreme, world-changing events to human history. It was not a lucky year for Malaysia airlines, and ISIS has done much harm. Russia becomes the big bear of the world, and Scotland remains a part of the United Kingdom after a referendum. Ebola claims thousands upon thousands of lives worldwide, and the sports world sees great and not-so-great moments.

This year, the world searched for new meaning amid so much chaos and calamity. Faith was questioned, love was lost, and we all got a little stronger in the face of new challenges. Many of these challenges will continue for some time... and we got to see them start.

"For no one is cast off by the Lord forever. Though He brings grief, He will show compassion, so great is His unfailing love. For He does not willingly bring affliction or grief to anyone."
~Lamentations 3:31-33

ISIS, the so-called Islamic State, invades Iraq and Syria.

The FIFA World Cup in Brazil brings Germany to a 3-2 win over Argentina.

The 2014 riots broke out after 17-year-old Michael Brown was shot and killed, after an altercation and robbery, by Officer Darren Wilson.

Russia invades Crimea, Ukraine (left); Scotland votes for independence from Britain and remains apart of the Union (top); we successfully land on comet, Rosetta (bottom).

Ebola Outbreak

The Ebola virus is a deadly virus that claimed thousands of victims in West Africa. Its origin is suspected to come from West African bats. The outbreak occurred in and effected many West African countries, with 9,368 recorded deaths in 2014 according to the World Health Organization, and nearly 23,000 others effected and treated.

There were approximately 30 cases of the Ebola outbreak outside of Africa. Of these 30 or so cases, about 10 were recorded in United States. Of the ten recorded in the United States, there was only 1 death.

The first case in Africa in 2014 was in March. Although Ebola is not a 'new' disease, the Ebola outbreak of 2014 is the worst to ever be recorded.
